"I'm a huge wrestling fan. Wrestlers have so many great qualities that athletes need to have."

- Bob Stoops - Oklahoma University Sooners Former Head Football Coach

The Benefits

The sport of wrestling teaches athletes how to position their body in a competitive setting and build mentally strong individuals. Wrestling is a great sport for all ages to help grow as an athlete by teaching young individuals how to tactfully beat their opponent and build discipline that will carry over many aspects of their lives. Wrestling also allows individuals of all sizes to compete against others their same size. This camp will teach athletes drills, technique, and games that will prepare them for their upcoming season.
